Thank you for registering your dog!

Every owner is responsible for exercising proper control of their dog!

1. Dog should have collar with registration disc at all times.
2. Dog must be properly confined on premises.
3. When outside of premises, dog should be kept on a leash.
4. Register your dog once a year no later than one month after each anniversary of the date on which the dog was registered.

The livestock industry of the British Virgin Islands suffers losses equaling thousands of dollars annually from dogs attacking and destroying livestock (sheep and goats) and poultry (chicken and duck).

1. Owner of dog is liable in damages for injury caused to any person, livestock, or poultry by that dog.
2. Penalties for not exercising proper control include fines ($250), 6 months imprisonment of owner and/or euthanasia of animal.
