
Government Phone Lines Experiencing an Outage

Release Date: 18 August, 2025

The public is advised that telephone lines across various government offices are currently experiencing an outage which is preventing incoming calls from being received.

Teams are currently working to resolve this issue and a further update will be issued once the outage has been rectified.