We know the challenges; crime and violence, burglaries and robberies...organized criminal gangs targeting vulnerable young people, especially boys from homes which are disrupted. In recognizing this and in standing here together, we show our collective willingness to take action, and we say enough is enough

I stand before you not only as Premier, but also as a father, a neighbour, and a son of these Virgin Islands, who will not stand by and watch crime erode our home's safety, beauty, and promise. Crime is not just a police problem, it is a community problem, it is a national problem. And I'm here to say Enough is

The Government of the Virgin Islands, under the banner of the National Security Council, invites the public to attend the Virgin Islands Anti-Crime Summit 2025, to be held under the theme “Our Virgin Islands: Safe Communities, Prosperous Territory”, from 24th – 26th September 2025.

The First session, which will focus on sharing and gathering information, will be held on Wednesday, 24th September, 2025 at the Multi-Purpose Sports Complex at 5:00 p.m.

As part of the lead-up to the event, a Youth Rally and Summit Launch was held on Friday, 15 August, featuring remarks by His Excellency Governor Daniel Pruce and Premier, Honourable Dr. Natalio D. Wheatley.
