Virgin Islands to Celebrate 75 Years of Restored Legislature

Release Date: 21 October, 2025

The Territory of the Virgin Islands is set to proudly commemorate 75 years since the restoration of its legislature, marking a significant milestone under the theme: Honouring the Past, Shaping the Future: The Virgin Islands 75 Year Journey Towards Self-Determination!

Honourable Corine George-Massicote, Speaker of the House of Assembly, invites the community to participate in a variety of commemorative events throughout the month.

“We will start the celebrations with a Special Sitting at the House of Assembly Chamber in Road Town on the Tuesday 4th November,” she said. “Some of the other things to look out for are; a Mock Sitting on the 21st; Daily General Knowledge Quizzes, and a Recognition Ceremony at the Eileene Parsons Auditorium on Friday 7th, November at 7:00 p.m. There will be a bringing the community together celebration on the 23rd at the C.B. Romney Tortola Pier Park and then a Special Service on the 30th. ”

Residents and interested parties are encouraged to tune in and follow the events live on the House of Assembly of the Virgin Islands Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/HOABVI/> and on the official YouTube channel @houseofassemblyvi2922 for the special series titled Know the House.

This milestone anniversary offers an opportunity to reflect on the Virgin Islands’ journey towards meaningful self-determination and legislative progress, honoring the past while shaping the future.
