PUBLIC SECTOR AGENCIES

The Ministry of Tourism, Culture and Sustainable Development is pleased to announce that the Virgin Islands Tourism Summit '26 is scheduled to take place 10 and 11 June, 2026.

This two-day event serves as a critical forum for industry leaders to collaborate on the future of the Territory's tourism product.

The Ministry invites participation from all tourism industry stakeholders, including hospitality, yachting, attractions, and transport, as well as public sector agencies, NGOs, and community partners.

Attendees can expect high-level discussions aimed at strengthening the industry's resilience and sustainable growth.

Registration and venue details will be released in the coming weeks.
