Lowering of Import Duties

Release Date: 17 April, 2026

Effective May 2026 for three months, through July 2026.

Import Duties to Reduce the Cost of Living

Making everyday goods more affordable.

Government has restructured how duties are calculated to ease financial pressure.

- Removal of duties on insurance and freight
- Shift from Cost, Insurance and Freight (CIF) to Free-on-Board (FOB)
- Lower import-related costs will result in savings passed on to consumers

Expect fairer pricing on

The Government has restructured the way import duties are calculated to reduce the cost of bringing goods into the Territory.

By removing duties on insurance and freight and shifting from a Cost, Insurance and Freight (CIF) model to Free-on-Board (FOB), the policy is expected to significantly lower import-related expenses.

These reductions are intended to translate into more affordable prices for consumers.
