eVisa Exemption For Eligible Entry Permit Holders

Release Date: 11 November, 2026

eVisa Exemption For Eligible Entry Permit Holders

The Department of Immigration is advising the public that Cabinet has approved the removal of the eVisa requirement for eligible nationals of visa-restricted countries, scheduled to take effect on 15 November 2026, subject to the required Visa Exemption Order.

WHO QUALIFIES?

- Persons holding a valid Entry Permit who remain compliant with its conditions.
- Visa-restricted dependants of qualifying Entry Permit holders, provided they continue to meet the relevant conditions.
- Persons who have received Work Permit approval through an Immigration Clearance Letter but have not yet obtained their physical Work Permit and Entry Permit.

WHEN DOES THE EXEMPTION END?

For Entry Permit holders, the exemption ends when the permit expires, is cancelled or revoked. For dependants, the exemption also ends if the principal Entry Permit holder no longer qualifies or if the dependant obtains an independent immigration status.
