Honouring 107 Years of Grace and Legacy

Today, the Social Development Department proudly extends heartfelt congratulations to Mrs Enelle Smith, the Virgin Islands' oldest living centenarian, on the extraordinary occasion of her 107th birthday.

Mrs Smith's life is a remarkable testament to resilience, strength and enduring legacy. Her longevity reflects the rich history of our Territory and stands as a source of inspiration to generations across the Virgin Islands. As we mark this milestone, we honour not only her years, but the wisdom, perseverance and dignity she represents.

The Social Development Department remains committed to advocating for the wellbeing, care and respect of our senior citizens, whose contributions have helped shape our communities and nation.

On this special day, we extend warm wishes to Mrs Enelle Smith for continued comfort, peace and good health, surrounded by love and appreciation.
