Labour Arbitration Tribunal Launches New Website

The Government of the Virgin Islands is pleased to announce the launch of the Labour Arbitration Tribunal's new website: <https://vilat.gov.vg/>.

The new platform provides the public with improved access to essential information regarding the Tribunal's operations. The website's clear and well-organised structure replaces the previous layout, which consolidated all resources in a single location.

Visitors can now navigate easily through distinct categories covering hearings, trials, decisions and tribunal processes. The simple design, which features minimal tabs, ensures that users can quickly locate information.

The new website also supports the Government's commitment to transparency in labour dispute resolution by making decisions, procedures and other key resources readily accessible to the community.

Members of the public are encouraged to visit the site to stay informed about tribunal proceedings and resources.

Contact the Labour Arbitration Tribunal directly for more information at lat@gov.vg or call 284-468-4758.
